

THE CHARITON COURIER.

C. P. VANDIVER, Ed. and Prop.

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

General at the post-office at Keytesville, Mo. second-class mail matter.

Friday, Oct. 25, 1895.

Brill, the grocer, will not be undersold.

Now is the time to be on time.
Get a watch at W. C. Gaston's. His stock is complete.

A splendid quality of brick are constantly kept for sale at Beasley's brick-yard, Brunswick, Mo.

Balch & Sons, proprietors of flour and grain exchange, opposite Tip-pett's blacksmith shop, Keytesville, Mo.

Brunswick has a Mandolin club composed of 25 members. Horace Mann, formerly of Keytesville, is "in it."

Salisbury has 17 resident ministers, ranging in name from plain Smith to the jaw-breaking cognomen of Wockenfuss.

Remember when you want groceries that Brill's stock is all new and fresh, and that he will make you bottom prices.

Mrs. John McClelland and Mrs. De Witt Guthridge, of near Newcomer, were called to Urns, Ill., last week by the death of their father.

Keytesville's latest enterprise is Balch & Sons' flour and grain exchange which was opened up on Cherry street, opposite Tippet's blacksmith shop, on Oct. 1st.

Before you go to see anyone else come and see what you can do at Keytesville's new flour and grain exchange.

BALCH & SONS, Proprietors.

A lot of goods for a little money can be had at W. C. Gaston's, whether you take a fine gold watch, gold ring, clock, chain, charm, or anything in his well-stocked stock.

M. Henry, "the hustler" of Triplett, is making very low prices on his large line of dry goods and groceries.
He sells for cash and can, therefore, give his customers the best of bargains.

A Salisbury merchant advertises to sell overcoats as cheap as corn.
Think of it! A whole barrel of overcoats for $1. That merchant will be in the poor house before spring, provided he sells enough overcoats.

Miss Ruth Veatch, daughter of Chas. Veatch, who was at one time postmaster and also engaged in the drug business here, but who is now telegraph editor on the Kansas City Journal, is visiting her cousins, Misses Bessie and Della Crawley.

Mrs. M. B. Mumme returned to her home, in St. Louis, last Saturday after a pleasant visit of several weeks to her grandchildren, Misses Marie and Ida and Master Tom Elliott, and the family of "Uncle Tom" Elliott.

"Dod" Nickerson, an old Salisbury boy, and at one time a typo on the COURIER, is now, we understand, holding cases on the Daily Argus at Brookfield. "Dod" was one of the swiftest typists that ever set type in the COURIER office, and his red head and hen-cackle laugh haunt us still.

The Salisbury Democrat was guilty of a very unkind and inconsiderate act last week by actually publishing the age of a lady who honored that paper with a friendly call. We'll bet a cracker to a cricket it will be a very cold day, indeed, when that lady calls on the Democrat again, and we wouldn't blame her either.

Mrs. Maria E. Cason, the sainted mother of John A. Cason, died at the home of her son, in Brunswick, on Wednesday, Oct. 16th, aged 89 years, 8 months and 5 days. Mrs.
Cason was a native of Virginia, but came to Missouri in 1831 and settled in Howard county, where she resided until ten years ago when she moved to Brunswick to make her home with her son and family. The deceased was a good woman and was held in high esteem by all who knew her.
She had been a devout member of the Baptist church for nearly 78 years, having professed religion and united with that church at the early age of 12 years.

The Mendon Citizen tells of a long, lank, telegraph-pole shaped individual, of gentlemanly appearance who entered the Monarch hotel at that place last Monday and ordered dinner for one, that had to be "put on ice." He was ushered into the dining-room and placed before the bountiful repast. After partaking hugely of the necessities of life and putting the waiters on a double-quick movement, he decamped without even saying thank you. The stranger is invited to "come again" and is assured that the bull-dog is now put on at full time, and with the closest instructions.

James T. Warden is doing a good business at his flour, feed and grain exchange store at Brunswick. He keeps all kinds of feed and handles flour from the well-known Keytesville, Triplett and Brunswick Roller mills, which he will exchange for your grain. Courteous treatment, fair dealing and satisfaction guaranteed to all of his customers.

Miss Bettie Moorman, a former successful primary teacher in the Keytesville public schools, but who is now bending young ideas in a district school, near Carrollton, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Keytesville, the guest of her aunt, Mrs.
A. F. Tooley.

W. P. Morris, of near Brunswick, passed through Keytesville last Monday with two large wagon loads of onions on his way to Moberly. Mr.
Morris has hauled 800 bushels of these odoriferous vegetables to Mcberly this fall and has sold them at 50 cts a bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rucker and little daughter, Margaret, concluded their visit here last Friday, and started Friday morning for their home, in West Virginia.

John Kincaid, a substantial farmer living seven miles northeast of Keytesville, is building a four-room residence on his farm.

Robt. T. Hayes, Frank Maddox and Wm. Herndon, three young men from the neighborhood of Forest Green, were arrested Tuesday night at Chariton church, down in the edge of Howard county, by Deputy Sheriff Dempsey and Constable F. M.
Veatch and brought to Keytesville, where they had their preliminary hearing before Squire H. A. Wheeler and were bound over in the sum of $500, each, to appear for trial before the 'quire on Nov. 1. The charge on which they were arrested was that of breaking into Dr. Lawhorn's store at Forest Green last July, and taking therefrom one gallon of whiskey.

We are glad to hear that J. W.
Soavely, of Carrollton, a well-known and popular grocery drummer, and a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. L. E.
Cook, of Keytesville, is convalescing from his attack of typhoid fever.

THE LEADING CLOTHIERS,
KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Rev. W. D. Neal, the young Methodist preacher on the Dalton circuit, left Keytesville for Shelby last Monday to be gone two weeks. In the meantime he will visit his home folks, in Ralls county. We suspect there is some other reason for his going, besides making a mere visit.
Cupid, we understand, has something to do with his trip, and the probability is that there will be a short honeymoon while he is gone and that Mrs. Mann will have another boarder when he returns.

"Can I see the editor?" he inquired of the grimy little "devil" roosting on a high stool. "No, sir," replied the youth on the stool, "he's sick."
"What's the matter with him?"
"Dun'no," said the boy. "One of our subscribers gave him a bag of flour and a bushel of pertaters 'other day and I reckon he's fondered."

B. L. Kendrick, of Brunswick, made the COURIER an appreciated call last Monday. "Ben" was still smiling over the recent arrival of a fine girl at his house.

One of Brunswick's old land-marks, known as the Thos. E. Gilliam tobacco factory for the past several years, which Messrs. Hathaway & Anderson had erected in 1851, has been sold for $500 by Mr. Gilliam to Messrs. Louis Kinkhorst and H. S.
Freeman, who have demolished the old rookery, and will erect some nice residences on the ground on which the old factory stood for the past 44 years.

Deputy County Clerk H. H. Miller, than whom there is not a more efficient, painstaking official in this or any other county, is executing quite a neat piece of work in the shape of a school district map of this county.
It is 6x6 feet, and has been pasted on the south wall of the county clerk's office.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lewis, of Ogden, Utah, were the guests of Mr.
Lewis' brother, Maj. W. H. Lewis, of Keytesville, last Sunday. Mr. Lewis stands 6 feet 4 in. high and weighs 326 pounds. He has been a resident of Utah since 1864, and ever since 1865 has been prominently connected with the educational interests of that territory. He is at present commissioner of public schools for that territory and is also principal of the public schools of Ogden.

JAS. F. TAYLOR.

A telephone message to Wm. Kelly, of Cockrell township, came Wednesday announcing that his brother-in-law, Daniel Kehoe, an employe of the Wabash railroad was killed in a wreck at St. Charles on Tuesday night. Wm. Kelly was a member of the petit jury and was sitting in the trial of a cause when the message came. Judge Rucker discharged him from further service on the jury, and he left for his home with the view of attending the funeral. There were no particulars received concerning the wreck.

Little Ruth Ward, the 7-year-old daughter of Clark Ward who lives in the south part of town, was bitten by a dog last Tuesday evening while on her way home. The vicious canine was the property of Aaron Duncan, a colored man who also lives in the same neighborhood. "Clark," on hearing of the dog's capers, "got his gun" and rendered Mr. Dog valuable assistance in getting off the earth, by filling his hide full of great big, round shot.

The enterprising hardware firm of Geo. M. Dewey & Co. have an ad. in this issue of the COURIER. If you want to know the place where you can buy the best hardware for the least money, you will do well to read it.

Mrs. Claude Scott, nee Grinstead, of Moberly, presented her liege lord with a fine 8-pound girl last Saturday. Mrs. Louisa Grinstead, of this place, went down to Moberly Monday night to form her new grand-daughter's acquaintance.

Mrs. O. P. Ray was the guest of the family of her father, Capt. J. H.
White, of near Westville, the latter part of last week.

Mr. William Craig, formerly of Callaway county, after spending several months visiting his son, George Sammy, in Oregon, and his brother, Joseph, and family in Idaho, stopped off at Keytesville last Friday to visit his niece, Mrs. Senator Mackay. He is still here, and as he and Mrs. Mackay are great talkers, and had not met for some years, they have had a great deal to talk about and are not nearly through yet. As he is such a nice old gentleman, we would not care if they should protract their conversation till spring.

Our Sanctum was enlivened last Wednesday by a pleasant call from Miss Emma Mann, who has been absent from home for several years, first at West Plains, Mo., but of late she has been in Dallas, Texas, teaching vocal and instrumental music.
We are glad to know that she intends remaining at home, and will continue teaching music, both vocal and instrumental. She is desirous of obtaining a good class, and those who wish to take music lessons should appreciate the opportunity of taking lessons from so efficient and experienced a teacher as Miss Emma.

W. H. Teal, a successful farmer, of near Utica, Iowa, was a pleasant caller at the COURIER office last Tuesday. Mr. Teal is a brother-in-law to Mark Smutz and an uncle, by marriage of George Border, both of near Indian Grove. He reports times prosperous in Iowa, and says corn is selling readily in his county for 25 cts a bushel. Mr. Teal's daughter, Rosa, by the way, married a Chariton young man by the name of Chas. Redding, of near Indian Grove, and they are now making their home in Iowa, having moved to that state about 10 days ago.
